

ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS WIN A FREE TRIP!!!

The Caney Valley Electric Cooperative is sponsoring an all-expense-paid trip to Steamboat Springs, Colorado, in July.

This trip is part of a four-state "Youth Leadership Camp" sponsored by rural electric cooperatives in Colorado, Wyoming, Oklahoma and Kansas. Contest winners will learn about electrification, cooperatives, energy problems, safety, and interpersonal communications.

The contest is open to all current high school juniors in Caney Valley's service area, whose parents or guardians are members of Caney Valley Electric.

If you are a high school junior and are interested in this trip, please complete the application form below and attached questionnaires, and send by January 20th to:

LEADERSHIP CAMP QUESTIONS

1. If you were selected to go to this Leadership Camp, how would you describe our area of Kansas to other camp participants?

2. Name two things you are most proud of.

3. Less than 100 years ago, most people living in rural America did not have electricity in their homes. In your opinion, what are the major benefits of electricity and belonging to an electric cooperative?

4. Many teenagers would be upset if their parents took away their radio, DVD player or video games. If you were a contestant on the TV show "Survivor" and could only have access to three electric products, what would you bring and why?

5. Why would you be a good representative to attend this camp?
